

FIFTY MILLION DOLLAR CHEMICAL PLANT JUNKED

(Correspondence Associated Press)

GREYNA, Eng., Jan. 2.—With the ending of hostilities the British government has on its hands unused $50,000,000 military chemical plant, the most important in the empire, employing during the war 22,000 persons. Apparently the government is undecided whether to try to utilize it or abandon it. Economists say it is too inaccessible for private commercial use and that its plant and machinery should be scrapped and the government should pocket the loss.

The workers are rapidly being demobilized and the population of Greyra has shrunk to 5,000. Recruited as they were from almost every branch of industry, many of them unskilled and inexperienced, the absorption of these workers into the new economic order is given to little concern to the government and to themselves, for economically Great Britain has not yet recovered her balance.

The unemployed munition workers and Greyra is only one government problem of many military affected. The taking of the "unemployment wage" provided by the government, and are among the most of it. As this wage is much less than they received while making shot and shell, being about $7.50 a week, there are four who will soon miss their high wages and in time may become the cause of industrial unrest. Some time ago elapse while military plants are being transformed into factories that will produce the things useful in ordinary life.

The factory has a wonderful housing system with comfortable homes, churches and recreation halls for the workers, and in ordinary circumstances it ought to be useful for many years to come. But the highly explosive nature of the product necessitated the planting of the industry outside the ordinary walks of commerce and manufacture. This makes it reasonably certain in the minds of economists that Greyra will have to be abandoned.

CURRENCY STOLEN

A $5000 package of currency mailed from the Reno National bank on January 7 to the Mason Valley bank, was stolen from the Yerington post office on January 8 and the thief is still at large although several secret service men have been working on the case.

CATTLE PUNCHERS GOING NORTH TO ROUND UP ARCTIC MUSK OXEN

(By Associated Press)

SEATTLE, Jan. 20.—Cattle punchers from the American plains are to be sent to the tundra country of Alaska to herd musk oxen toward western Alaska where they will be domesticated and slaughtered to increase the meat supply, according to a special Washington D. C. dispatch to the Seattle Times.

Some of the oxen will come from the snow covered islands fringing the mainland's northern rim; the dispatch said Governor Thomas Rigney, of Alaska, has been quoted as saying there are 200,000 musk oxen on Alaskan islands alone.

The federal department of the interior and the department of agriculture and dispatch said, are arranging to send the cow men north. Congress will be asked to make an appropriation to outfit the expedition. Governor Rigney and Jafet Landon, here, a Nome, Alaska, mining man who also owns reindeer herds, are supporting the plan. It was said Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Arctic explorer, on his recent return from the north said the musk oxen numbered thousands and contended they could be herded and domesticated and butchered. He said the meat from the musk ox is better than most beef sold in the states.

If the oxen are herded to western Alaska they will not be going into a

USE OF COFFEE IN DRY ISLAND

(By Associated Press)

SAN JUAN, P. R., Jan. 20.—Porto Rico is consuming 50 per cent more coffee today than she did before the island "went dry," according to a San Juan coffee dealer.

This fact, together with an island coffee crop of only half of what it was last year and a heavy demand from Spain and Cuba, has sent up prices throughout the island.

The coffee market here began jumping a week or two ago and it has been going up ever since. Retailers found the price almost doubled overnight and the restaurants last week raised their prices to ten cents a cup.

San Juan dealers say coffee is likely to go higher than the present price of 44 cents retail if the outside demand continues as strong as now.

ALASKA QUARANTINE

(By Associated Press)

JUNEAU, Alaska, Jan. 6.—(By Mail)—Chena Indians are enforcing quarantine regulations against natives from farther down the Tanana river. Recently two natives from Nenana went up the river to Chena, and the Indian there promptly isolated them in a cabin for two days before they would permit them to associate with the Chena tribesmen. Fear of Spanish influenza caused the Chena precautions.

BREAK INTO JAIL TO STEAL LIQUOR

(By Associated Press)

RIGBY, Idaho, Jan. 20.—Prohibition history recites numerous instances of men getting into jail for possessing liquor contrary to the law, but a reversal was recorded here recently when some person or persons broke into the county jail and stole 30 cases of liquor. The beverage had been seized at different times and was stored in the jail awaiting court orders to destroy it.

The thief, or thieves, stole all that was in the jail. The sheriff recovered the loot, however, tracing part of it to Rexburg and the remainder to Pano.

HERO WORSHIP DECRIED BY VOCATIONAL TEACHER

(By Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 20.—"Don't spoil the boys when they come back," was the plea of Russell C. Lowell, of the federal board of vocational education, when he spoke here recently.

Mr. Lowell said he thought that some of those who had been maimed in the war were spoiled for the future by being feted too much and adored as heroes when they reached their own home towns. He cited several cases where young men had practically refused to undertake to learn new trades after being unfitted by their wounds for continuing at their old trades, because, they said, they did not need to work now.

After a time, Mr. Lowell declared, a man tires of such idleness and false honor, and he either becomes mentally sick and despondent or gets quite crooked in his methods and he gains preying upon people instead of trying to earn a living.

Mr. Lowell stated that one of the chief difficulties the federal educational system is encountering is that of getting hold of the maimed men when they have returned to this country. They filter back to their own districts, and, unless properly taught to start life anew are apt to reach a mental stage where it is difficult to get them to overcome the real difficulties which exist in the re-education in trades.
